

May 2009

Tourism ChitCHAT

May, Music, and Merriment

We love music, whether on a front porch or patio. We love to hear all types of sound too, accompanied by seasonal, local food, of course. Hope to see you for some music and merriment this May or just about anytime from now till year's end.

Bynum Front Porch Pickin' and Potluck

Second and fourth Saturday of each month, 10am - 2pm, Historic Bynum General Store. Pickers are asked to bring acoustic instruments only. Circle type jam open to all skill levels and ages. If you pick, bring your instrument. If you sing, bring your voice. Bring a dish to share.

Music at Reno Sharpe's Store

Reno's store was the focal point of the community to buy groceries, trade goods, or just hang out and for the latest news and gossip. Fall 2009 marks 10 years of music at Reno's store. Twice a month, year-round, first and third Saturday mornings, take in the Gospel and Bluegrass, respectively. Plan to bring your instrument to play or just come and listen.

Open Mike Night at Mina Bean'a

Tuesdays, 7pm - 8.30pm. Enjoy good food, company, and music in an intimate setting in historic downtown Siler City.

City Tap Music on the Patio

Pittsboro's neighborhood bar. Ten beers on tap, great wine and food, beer garden, and live music on the patio (weekends). Performances may be cancelled due to weather.

Feed the Farm Music Festival - May 9

Held at the Plant, home of Piedmont Biofuels.

Carolina Brewery & Grill Summer Patio Music Series

Grab an ice cold beer, friends, and enjoy live music every Saturday, May 23 through September, 6pm - 9pm.

---

Find, Follow, or Fan the Pittsboro-Siler City Convention & Visitors Bureau.

Tourism ChitCHAT <http://community.icontact.com/p/visitpittsboro/rss.xml>