EVENT DEBUT: Silk Hope Farm Heritage Day

Join us in celebrating the rich heritage of our area during National Tourism Week. The Silk Hope Ruritans invite you to join in the farm fun at the first ever Silk Hope Farm Heritage Day on Saturday, May 9, 9am. Admission is $5, per day, per person; children under six admitted free. Parking is free.

The event brings to life agriculture from the past at Silk Hope's Historic Farm Heritage Park, with vintage lawn and garden equipment, huge static steam engines on display, children's activities, horse demonstrations, flea market, great food (homemade, southern, and plentiful options), and more.

See the Silk Hope Restored Historic Village with the most recent addition, the renovated Blacksmith Shop featuring Silk Hope's own Master Blacksmith Peter Ross (Master of the Blacksmith Shop at Colonial Williamsburg for 25 years).

Watch, in operation: Grist Mill, Saw Mill, Window & Door Mill, Cotton Gin, and plenty of "Steam Cream" – Homemade Ice Cream Churned by Steam Power! Enjoy live music with country and Bluegrass performances through out the day. Walk around and see antique farm tractors, gas engines, and collectible cars. More information, mrauction@embarqmail.com.

Celebrate National Tourism Week with us. Find plenty of fun and free things to do, deals, and discounts during May 9 - 17. Travel Matters. Join us in discovering, and rediscovering, great American traditions.
